

10th International Conference of
The Learning Sciences

The Future of Learning

ICLS 2012 brings together disciplinary scholars with researchers in the sciences of learning and design to consider ways in which advances in the field might inform the future of learning.

On its 10th anniversary, ICLS takes a first trip to the Southern hemisphere to host workshops, panels, symposia, paper and poster sessions, a doctoral consortium, and keynotes by pioneers in the field.

2 - 6 July, 2012
in Sydney, Australia
